

Separate and Unequal: A History and Comparison of Public Medical Facilities for African-Americans In St. Louis and Kansas City (1911 to 1979)

The desire for a health-care facility where African-Americans would receive medical care and training in a respectful and dignified environment, led to the creation of Homer G. Phillips Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri, and Kansas City General Hospital Number 2 in Kansas City, Missouri.

FSH invites you to learn more about the history and significance of Homer G. Phillips Hospital and Kansas City General Hospital Number 2.

WHEN: Tuesday, February 15, 2011
TIME: 11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
WHERE: Hearnes D Building Auditorium
PRESENTERS: Debra M. Miles, J.D.

Homer G. Phillips Hospital

Kansas City General Hospital #2

African-American History: Be Moved. Be Inspired. Be Understood.